John F. Hill, son of Mr. Edward Hill and an old Mayville boy, who was struck with the electricity of the call to arms and who enlisted on the Pacific slope, is now enjoying army life with his Regiment, Eighth California, stationed at U. S. Barracks, Vancouver Island. He is tailor for Company H, to which he belongs.

Cornelius Gilbert, Fred Gilbert and George Thatcher were arrested last night charged with stealing a watch from Mr. Sam Smith. The watch was found in Thatcher's possession, the crystal being broken. Thatcher claimed that he was in Mayville on a piece of business with detective Fitzgerald, but that was not a good excuse for carrying Mr. Smith's watch, so Officer Wallace locked him up, awaiting Judge Wadsworth's decision in a trial this morning.

Has business been dull with you? Do you want a share of Holiday trade? Have people passed your store without coming in? Have you given them an invitation to call and see you? Do you yourself ever go where you're not invited? And don't you always feel welcome and at ease in a place where you have been invited? These questions can be satisfactorily answered through an advertisement in THE LEDGER during the Holiday season. Try it and see for yourself.

Judge John Y. Showalter of the United States District Court, whose death at Chicago was briefly noted in yesterday's LEDGER, was born in this county. The Modern Mother

FARMERS MEETING.

Proceedings of the Tobacco Convention Yesterday.

DOWN TO WORK IN EARNEST.

Yesterday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock in the County Clerk's office an adjourned meeting of the Mason County Tobacco Growers Convention was held, the main object being to hear a report from the delegates who attended the State Convention held in Lexington last week.

A goodly attendance of our best farmers was present, and the interest manifested clearly shows this portion of agricultural life in our midst to be thoroughly aroused and determined.

W. Scott Osborne read the report, which was substantially the same as THE LEDGER gave immediately after the Lexington Convention.

The resolutions, which were the basis of formation for the state organization, were adopted by a unanimous vote.

Upon motion of Mr. Joe Walton the temporary organization was made permanent.

"Squire Chirp" moved, and it was seconded, that the Chair appoint a committee of five to name three delegates in each Precinct in the county, who are to organize for action and report at the County Convention Monday, December 19th next.

The motion was amended to include every farmer present, which carried, and the following list of delegates was reported:

Washington—John Holton, William Gill, Charles Hunter, Pat Maher.

Murphysville—Scott Stevenson, Tom Maher, R. Watson.

Sardis—Logan Marshall, Willis Wiggins, Dan Douglas.

Mayfield—A. P. Gooding, Joel Laytham, E. P. Pogue, Pat Mahon, John Clark, P. Robinson.

Hilltop—Charles Reed, John Downing, John Worthington.

Germanstown—C. T. Calvert, Joe Henson, Ben Lloyd, James Mobley.

Minerva—Joe Walton, Thornton King, Frazee Weaver, Sam Frazee.

Dover—Scott Osborne, J. C. Pickett, Ras Pickett, James N. Boyd.

Dieterich—Jake King, Henry Adams, A. Rains.

Mayville—Martin Heflin, Andy Ring, Scott Fletcher.

Fernest—John Boulden, John Thompson, Vach Worthington.

Pittsboro—Joe Black, W. Viceroy, J. J. Perrine.

Mayville—Emory Whitaker, David Frazee, Thomas Winter, Dr. J. M. Eraser.

A motion prevailed to call the Precinct meetings for organization for Saturday, December 17th, at 2 o'clock, and to meet the County Tobacco Growers Association in Mayville Monday, December 19th, at 1:30 p. m.

The Committee appointed to raise funds for defraying expenses of delegates to Lexington reported.

Before a motion to adjourn was carried the Chair and several influential farmers present asked THE LEDGER to urge each and every tobacco raiser in Mason county to make himself a zealous worker in this cause, as it must now be accomplished through hard work and with much expedition if the interest of the farmer is to be upheld and the price for his commodity maintained at living prices, which is the point involved.

THE SLEIGH RIDE.

Sweet Susie Brown, my pretty one!
I'm sure you must remember—
If not for love, at least for fun—
The sleigh rides in December,
When all the belles and all the beaux,
In spite of frosts, would go forth,
And squeeze, beneath the buffaloes,
Each others' hands, &c.

How brightly streamed the Northern lights
Above the snowy ridges!
How pleasant were the wintry nights
Observed from country bridges!
Where "toll" was sought with such address,
And laughter loud would peal forth,
While lovers, 'till, amid the press,
Each others' hearts, &c.

'Tis very singular and queer,
Of all love's mad devices,
Its fire should burn so bright and clear
On fuel formed of loes;
And yet we know its flames, indeed,
Most brilliantly will glow forth,
When fanned behind a flying steed,
Hid under furs, &c.

I'm sure you mind the village inn,
The supper and the revel;
How, in the general dire and din,
Love shot his arrows level;
And don't forget how Henry Kidd
Embraced you ere he went forth,
You kissed his lips—you know you did—
He pressed your hands, &c.

And when the forfeits all were paid,
How one old maid resisted,
Until the younger ladies said
A prude they all detested.
"Dost!" she cried—the ancient Ann—
Her modesty to show forth,
"I'll never yield to any man
My virgin lips, &c.

The wintry winds, the homeward way,
Blew chilly in our faces,
But underneath our furs we lay
All snugly in our places;
One girl upon the forward seat—
The pretty Nellie Wentworth—
Declared Jack Frost, or Billy Frost,
Had pinched her cheek, &c.

Another underneath her robes,
(The buffaloes, not her dresses),
Fair Patience, with attendant Job,
Detected in carresses,
Sprang up, with anger, blushing face,
Her innocence to show forth,
But showed her curls all out of place,
Her collar gone, &c.

And then the parting at the door!
Its tender, mutual bliss!
Sweet lips, from their abundant store,
Gave to the poor—in kisses!
The parting word—the long embrace—
As Cupid's arrows shot forth,
Brought fire to many a boyish face,
And raised his hopes, &c.

Dear Susie Brown, save you and I,
Of all that load of merriment,
No other pair are left to try
Love's latest, best experiment;
And when the coming snows are spread,
And mutual hopes shall glow forth,
May Hymen bless our nuptial bed,
Increase our joys, &c.
